The Account Holder hereby applies for the Electronic Identification System EKN eID for authentication and signature in EKN Online for the above mentioned User.

The terms and conditions for use of EKN eID are set out in the General Terms and Conditions for EKN eID. The Account Holder is responsible for ensuring that the User is aware of, and abides by, all terms and conditions applicable to EKN eID.

The User's and the contact person's personal data is registered by the Swedish Export Credit Agency (EKN) and/or EKN's subcontractors when EKN eID is issued, administered and used in accordance with the General Terms and Conditions for EKN eID and on EKN's website, www.ekn.se.

The General Terms and Conditions for EKN eID can also be read and downloaded at EKN's website.

When the application has been approved by EKN, the User will receive an e-mail with instructions and a link to download the security app to its mobile device.

A User can only have one EKN eID. This means that a User's EKN eID may only be installed at one mobile device at a time.

An EKN eID is blocked two (2) years after the date of issue, unless it is revoked before that date pursuant to the General Terms and Conditions for EKN eID.

A copy of the User's ID (identity card issued by Swedish authority or Swedish certificate or foreign passport) must be enclosed with this application.

By signing this application, the Account Holder and the User confirm (i) that they have received and accepted the terms and conditions set out in the General Terms and Conditions for EKN Online and (ii) that all information provided in respect of the identity of the User (including information enclosed with the application) is accurate.

By signing this application, the authorized signatory also certifies that he/she (alone or jointly with another signatory) is authorised and has the power to apply for EKN eID for the User on behalf of the Account Holder.
